

FAW Introduction to Coaching Football Certificate FAQs

1. What are the International Modules?

These modules have been developed to further educate and support those coaches who wish to gain a greater understanding and knowledge of our coach education programme in Wales and find it difficult to attend practical contact days, due to their home location behind outside of the UK.

2. What are the differences between the Domestic Courses and the International Modules?

Domestic courses are structured to support coaches in accessing the coach education pathway within Wales, leading into accredited UEFA Qualifications. Our International Modules do not contain any practical contact days and sits outside our structured Coaching Pathway.

3. If I hold an FAW Coaching Qualification, can I complete the International Modules?

Yes, these modules are open to all coaches but sit outside our Coach Education pathway in Wales.

4. I'm looking to revalidate my current FAW Qualification, would the International Modules count towards my revalidation hours?

No, coaches who attend our domestic awards would still need to attend our specific FAW Conferences to remain active via our current FAW Revalidation opportunities listed below.

| | |
|------------------------|---|
| Football Leaders Award | x2 FAW McDonalds Workshops or x1 Grassroots Conference |
| FAW C Certificate | x2 Grassroots Conferences |
| UEFA B, A or Pro | National Coaches Conference |

5. I have missed a day of my FAW C Certificate/ UEFA B Licence, if I complete the International Modules, would these hours be accepted to complete my course attendance?

No, should you miss a day of your FAW course these hours need to be completed within twelve months via the same level of Course. To arrange to complete these hours please contact your Course Director.

6. Can I complete the International modules instead of an FAW/UEFA Qualification?

Our FAW/UEFA courses are focused on our domestic game and have been structured to best support coaches in Wales. You could complete the International Modules as an alternative however, they would not be recognised or accepted by associations or domestic leagues.

7. I've completed courses within FAW Coach Education Pathway, how do these compare with the theory of the International Modules?

There are similarities between both the International and domestic modules. Please refer to the individual course summary before purchasing.

8. Our club is currently engaged in the FAW Club Accreditation programme, will the International Modules be accepted?

The International modules would not be recognised as part of the Club Accreditation programme. Coaches would need to complete courses within the FAW Coach Education pathway.

9. If I completed the International modules could they be used as a pre-requisite for an FAW Course?

No, the International modules are additional educational resources. Coaches would need to follow the FAW Coach Education pathway.
